Dear Alton,

The reunion of the 3rd Squadron, 4th Cavalry for 2006 is now history. It is hard to believe that an event so long worked for, is now just a flash in the past. What a success it was!

The 3rd Squadron, 4th Cavalry have been hosting biannual reunions since 1988. The first reunion was at The Wall in Washington, D.C., where only a handful of men met. It has taken years of constant research to find the 1200 plus men now in the Association. This past week, Agenda Kansas City served a major role in our 10th reunion and this reunion is now acclaimed to be the "Best Ever!" Totally there were 180 troopers who attended, from 37 different states, and including spouses and guests, 340 attended one function or another throughout the days of July 27-30, 2006 at the Kansas City Airport Marriott.

Alton, may I commend Agenda Kansas City, Inc. What a service you and your team performed! Thank you for all the personal attention in all the stages of planning and in the days of the reunion itself. Your service, your equipment and your personal touch were of the highest standards. I, along with the rest of the attendees at the reunion, was very impressed with your outstanding touring company. I can only imagine how proud this City in the Big Bend of the Missouri River is to have a company like yours representing Kansas City.

May I turn the tone of this letter to a more personal note? I am so grateful for Darlene Burton for being so prompt in keeping me abreast of those troopers registering for our selected tours. And, those tour guides....Wow!! I cannot remember all their names, but Sherry was on the bus I took to the Steamboat Arabia tour. How impressive it was to hear her talk about Kansas City, the people who made Kansas City, and the places of interest in Kansas City. I heard one trooper remark, (and I don't know what tour it was), but he said something of this nature. "She knew something about every spot of territory between where we left from and where we went." Yes, the guides and courteous drivers were great to have.

Please accept the sincere gratitude's from all of us of the 3rd Squadron, 4th Cavalry Association.

Sincerely,

"KC" (allen b. allcock)
